

About Our Event

Beyond the Burn is a fundraiser and community service event for two young children who were tragically burned. This will be a day of fun, education, challenge and celebration. We are honored to have the local Red Cross joining us with their “mini smoke house” to teach children how to escape from a fire, the Tallahassee Fire Department meeting children and speaking with families about fire safety, and through generous donations being able to offer attending families a complementary fire extinguisher with instruction on how to use and care for it correctly. Together, as a community, Beyond the Burns will help restore joy, hope and beauty to the devastating ashes of summer by lifting the financial burden for the children’s families and educating our community on fire safety. 100% proceeds will be donated directly to the children.

Why Beyond the Burns?

As summer arrived this year, kids all over the panhandle prepared with excitement and anticipation for church camp. For two young children, the camp staff and all other camp attendees, this summer would change their life forever. Young Nevaeh, from Panama City, FL and a boy from the surrounding Tallahassee area would not return home at the end of the week on Friday as planned. A midweek morning demonstration using fire went horribly wrong burning both children. The young boy suffered second and third degree burns on approximately 25% of his body. Neveah’s suffered third degree burns on 70% of her body. Both children were airlifted to Tallahassee then by ambulance to Shands in Gainesville, FL. By Friday it was determined that Nevaeh’s injuries would be better treated at Shriners’ Hospital for Children in Boston, MA and she was airlifted on Saturday evening. The boy continued treatment in the Intensive Care Burn Unit at Shands.

Throughout the summer both families have remained at the bed-side of their children comforting and encouraging as much as possible. Both children have had multiple skin grafts using their own skin that was not affected. This of course causes pain in places that were originally unharmed. By late July, the boy had shown enough improvement that he was released from Shands, yet still faces wearing compression dressing to reduce scarring on his arms and legs for up to two years. Nevaeh is continuing to fight with a smile, knowing her baby sister arrives in December, while in Boston where doctors are shaking their heads at her remarkable pace of recovery. Although the future looks miraculously bright for both these children, their road to complete recovery is still ahead. Nevaeh may still need more skin grafts and both will be in need of physical therapy and/or Occupational Therapies.

When and Where is Beyond the Burns?

Saturday, December 10, 2016 starting at 9am for the 5K or 1 Mile Fun Run/ Walk at Maclay Gardens. In addition to the runs and walk, fire safety information, there will be food and family entertainment including: bounce houses, face painting, and more. Throughout the day interactive lifesaving information will be provide by the local Red Cross and the Tallahassee Fire Department.

As a community we can help bring beauty to the ashes of summer by lifting the financial burden for both of these families.
